- Why has this Vendor Registration Program (VRP) been undertaken? What will be the outcome of this process?

Project Owners in the construction industry spend large amounts of resources in the process of finding appropriate consultants and services. Since each Project Owner spends the money separately from others, there is wastage due to duplication of efforts.

With this VRP, CIDC is establishing a Central Database for consultants of all types of Services from India and abroad to avoid this national wastage. ICC has in place a rigorous inspection and verification system as part of the due diligence process of registration. This ensures the database developed is credible and comprises of competent vendors.

However, Enlistment in ICC Database does not guarantee any Issue of Purchase/Tender enquiries.

- Who will benefit from this database?

Among ICC & CIDC members are some of the biggest Project Owners, Contractors and Stakeholders of Indian Construction Industry. (Please visit website www.cidcdatabase.com & www.iccindia.org for list of members).

The database will provide access to a credible central pool of duly certified vendors for procurement of goods and services from India and abroad.

Though some of the members may further apply their own criteria for selection, access to the database will allow them to shorten the time required for procurement.

Major Contractors shall also have access to this database, which allows them to find associates for various outsourcing and sub-contracting works.

Enlisted Vendors benefit as their presence on this database improve their visibility amongst a large community of Construction Industry, Stakeholders for foraying business alliances for JVs, procurement of services as viable entities in considering their major procurements.
